

KNOWLEDGE RESISTANCE

Perspectives on Knowledge Resistance

Stockholm university, Sweden
Funded by Riksbankens jubileumsfond

21st – 23rd of November 2024

All talks take place at Aula Magna, Frescativägen 6, Stockholm university.
For more information, please contact josefin.klofvermark@philosophy.su.se

21.11.2024, h. 10:30-17:00

Coffee and registration: 10:30-11:00

11:00 – 11:10

Welcome, Åsa Wikforss

Keynote 1: 11:10 – 12:25

Maria Baghramian, philosophy

“Knowledge Resistance, Trust, and the Call of Intellectual Autonomy”

Lunch break: 12:25-13:25

Half hour talk 1: 13:25-13:55

Roderik Rekker, political science

“Political polarization over facts and science”

Keynote 2: 14:00 – 15:15

Cory J Clark, psychology

“Politicization undermines trust in institutions (including science)”

Coffee: 15:15-15:45

Keynote 3: 15:45 – 17:00

Dannagal Young, media- and communication

“Curbing the Demand for Identity-Driven Wrongness”

22.11.2024, h. 9:30-17.05

Keynote 4: 09:30 – 10:45

Alexa Bankert, political science

“Flip the Script: Shifting Perspectives on Polarization”

Coffee: 10:45-11:15

Half hour talk 2: 11:15-11:45

Tricia Magalotti, philosophy

“What’s wrong with motivated reasoning?”

Half hour talk 3: 11:55-12:25

Andreas Olsson, psychology

“Conformity and Partisanship Impact Perceived Truthfulness, Liking and Sharing of Information Online”

Lunch break: 12:30-13:30

Keynote 5: 13:30-14:45

Michael Lynch, philosophy

“Truth and Democracy”

Half hour talk 4: 14:50-15:20

Jesper Strömbäck, media- and communication

“Truth, trust and the news media: Rethinking a complex relationship”

Coffee: 15:20-15:50

Keynote 6: 15:50 – 17:05

Lotte Pummerer, psychology

“Conspiracy Beliefs as Motivated Knowledge Resistance: Their Effects and Paths to Intervention”

23.11.2024, h. 9:00-12:15

Coffee: 09:00-09:30

Keynote 7: 09:30 – 10:45

Emily Thorson, media- and communication

“The Invented State: Policy Misperceptions in the American Public”

Keynote 8: 10:45-12.00

Brendan J Nyhan, political science

“(Mis)information Flows and Public Beliefs about Voter Fraud in the 2020 and 2022 U.S. Elections”

12:00-12:15 Main take away

Lunch 12:15

Stockholms universitet

RIKSBANKENS JUBILEUMSFOND

FRÄMJAR HUMANIORA
OCH SAMHÄLLSVETENSKAP